

a study of the impact of all Federal regulatory paperwork and tax requirements upon small business and report its findings to the Congress within 1 year of the date of the enactment of this Act.

SEC. 709. CERTIFICATION OF COMPLIANCE WITH CHILD SUPPORT OBLIGATIONS.

The Small Business Act (15 U.S.C. 631 et seq.) is amended by inserting after section 31, as added by section 706 of this Act, the following:

"SEC. 32. CERTIFICATION OF COMPLIANCE WITH CHILD SUPPORT OBLIGATIONS.

"Each applicant for financial assistance under this Act, including applicants for direct loans and loan guarantees, shall certify, as a condition for receiving such assistance, that the applicant is not in violation of the terms of any administrative order, court order, or repayment agreement entered into between the applicant and the custodial parent or the State agency providing child support enforcement services which requires the applicant to pay child support, as such term is defined by section 462(b) of the Social Security Act."

The bill, as amended, was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, was read a third time by title.

Mr. KIM moved to recommit the bill to the Committee on Small Business with instructions to report the bill back to the House forthwith with the following amendment:

Page 37, after line 3, insert the following:

(c) ADDITIONAL AMOUNTS.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Administration is authorized to transfer, subject to subsequent appropriations, appropriations made available to carry out this title the unobligated balance of the following amounts appropriated by title IV of the Department of State of Related Agencies Appropriations Act, 1995:

(1) $15,000,000 made available to the Administration under the heading "Salaries and Expenses" to implement section 24 of the Small Business Act.

(2) $23,750,000 made available to the Administration under the heading "Business Loans Program Account" to carry out the projects specified in the second sentence of the first paragraph under such heading.

Amounts transferred under this subsection shall be in addition to amounts appropriated pursuant to subsection (b).

After debate,

By unanimous consent, the previous question was ordered on the motion to recommit with instructions.

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House recommit said bill with instructions?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. KLECZKA, announced that the nays had it.

Mr. KIM objected to the vote on the ground that a quorum was not present and not voting.

A quorum not being present,

The roll was called under clause 4, rule XV, and the call was taken by electronic device.
